

Washington as Place Summer 2010

A sense of place is developed through experience and knowledge of an area, its history, geology, sociology, and geography; it is also further defined by the lens or filter each person brings to a place. We all come from somewhere, and for now we are blessed to call magnificent Washington as our place.

My Island

by Ann Leda Shapiro (Children)

Seattle ABC

by John Skewes and Robert Schwartz (Children)

Twilight Tours: an illustrated guide to the REAL Forks

by George Beahm with the Forks Chamber of Commerce (Young Adult)

Little Farm in the Foothills: A Boomer Couple's Search for the Slow Life

by Susan Colleen Browne (Adult)

Lake Washington 130 Homes: A Guided Tour of the Lake's Most Magnificent Homes

by David C. Dykstra (Adult)

The Circumference of Home: One Man's Yearlong Quest for a Radically Local Life

by Kurt Hoelting (Adult)

Builders of the Pacific Coast

by Lloyd Kahn (Adult)

The Arts and Crafts Movement in the Pacific Northwest

by Lawrence Kreisman and Glenn Mason (Adult)

Columbia Highlands: Exploring Washington's Last Frontier

by Craig Romano (Adult)

Books selected by State Librarian Jan Walsh